20a. How does the Committee accomplish its purpose?

The objective of this committee is to advise the Secretary on the necessary elements of a comprehensive, holistic national freight infrastructure and a national freight policy designed to support U.S. export growth and competitiveness, foster national economic competitiveness, and improve U.S. supply chain competitiveness in the domestic and global economy. This committee will provide detailed policy and technical advice, information, and recommendations to the Secretary regarding: • national, state, or local factors that inhibit the efficient domestic and international movement of goods from point of origin to destination and the competitiveness of domestic and international supply chains; • infrastructure capacity, inter- and cross-modal connectivity, investment, regulatory, and intra- or inter-governmental coordination factors that affect supply chain competitiveness, goods movement, and sustainability; • emerging trends in goods movement that affect or supply chain competitiveness; and • metrics that can be used to quantify supply chain performance. The Secretary will use this advice, information, and recommendations in interagency discussions in the development of a national freight policy. The committee shall act as a liaison among the stakeholders represented by the membership and shall provide a forum for those stakeholders on current and emerging issues in goods movement, ensuring regular contact between the government and the supply chain industries. The committee shall advise and provide policy advice, information, and recommendations to the Secretary with respect to the formulation, coordination, and oversight of domestic and foreign policy related to supply chains for goods and services. In administering this committee, the Department of Commerce will work closely with the Department of Transportation.

20b. How does the Committee balance its membership?

The committee shall have a maximum of forty (45) private sector members with a balanced and broad range of interests, including representatives from supply chain firms or their associations, stakeholders, community organizations, and others directly affected by the supply chain, as well as experts from academia. Appointments will be made by the Secretary, in consultation with the Department of Transportation, EPA, and other agencies, as appropriate. Members will be appointed for terms of two years.(Membership Balance Plan is available in the FACA Database)

20c. How frequent and relevant are the Committee Meetings?

The Committee shall meet as often as necessary as determined by the DFO, but not less than once per year.

20d. Why can't the advice or information this committee provides be obtained elsewhere?

The Committee shall advise the Secretary on the necessary elements of a comprehensive, holistic national freight infrastructure and a national freight policy designed to support U.S. export growth and competitiveness, foster national economic competitiveness, and improve U.S. supply chain competitiveness in the domestic and global economy.

20e. Why is it necessary to close and/or partially closed committee meetings?
